MEMORANDUM

TO: Professors of Military Science
Host Institutions

FROM: Darla Wolf
ROTC Administrator, Membership & Meetings

SUBJECT: 2022 Senior AUSA-ROTC Awards Program

DATE: 21 January 2022

In accordance with Cadet Command Regulation 672-5-1, the Association of the United States Army (AUSA) will provide AUSA-ROTC Medals to recognize outstanding leadership and academic achievements, and books for excellence in the study of Military History where this course is offered.

Students in cross-enrolled programs must be counted with the cadets enrolled at the host institutions.

AUSA-ROTC Medal

Criteria:

- 1) The recipient, enrolled in MS-III, shall be in the top 10% of the class in ROTC grades and shall be in the top 25% of the class in general academic grades.
- 2) The cadet satisfies the above and, in the opinion of the PMS, has contributed the most, through leadership, to advancing the standing of the ROTC unit and the Department of Military Science at the institution.

Allowance:

The following will be used to determine the number of medals authorized:

001 – 100	Advanced Course Cadets Enrolled – 1 Medal
101 – 200	Advanced Course Cadets Enrolled – 2 Medals
201 +	Advanced Course Cadets Enrolled – 3 Medals

Certificate

A blank certificate will be furnished with each medal. The certificate shall be completed locally with the recipient's name.

AUSA Military History Award

AUSA will provide a military history book for each award winner. These will be used as an award to continue AUSA's program of recognizing excellence in the study of military history in ROTC units. The Cadet must have been enrolled in a specific military history course at the institution during the academic year the award is given. The Professor of Military Science may establish additional criteria.

Allowance:

If, due to the manner in which history classes are scheduled, additional copies are required you must submit full justification to this office. The Military History course should be a part of the required ROTC curriculum, although it may be taught in another department of the school.

The AUSA-ROTC Medal(s) with certificate(s) and the Military History publication with corresponding certificate are mailed together as a single package. A local chapter representative will be reaching out to you to coordinate the presentation of AUSA awards at your upcoming ceremony. If you need contact information for your local chapter, please contact Darla Wolf at dwolf@ausa.org.

If expedited shipping is requested, the school will be billed for the extra charge. Please ensure that all questions on the following page "REQUEST FOR 2022 SROTC AWARDS" are answered and legible. Not complying may delay processing of your request in a timely manner.

AUSA is pleased to support your program with these awards. If there are other ways you feel we could better support your program, please contact Darla Wolf at dwolf@ausa.org.
