MEMORANDUM

TO: Professors of Military Science, Host Institutions

FROM: Angelina Flores
Director, Chapter & Region Support

SUBJECT: 2023 AUSA Senior ROTC Awards Program

DATE: 1 February 2023

In accordance with Cadet Command Regulation 672-5-1, the Association of the United States Army (AUSA) will provide AUSA-ROTC award medals to recognize outstanding leadership and academic achievements, and books for excellence in the study of Military History where this course is offered. Students in cross-enrolled programs must be counted with the cadets enrolled at the host institutions.

AUSA-Senior ROTC Medal

Criteria:

- The recipient, enrolled in MS-III, shall be in the top 10% of the class in ROTC grades and shall be in the top 25% of the class in general academic grades.
- The cadet satisfies the above and, in the opinion of the PMS, has contributed the most, through leadership, to advancing the standing of the ROTC unit and the Department of Military Science at the institution.

Allowance: The following will be used to determine the number of medals authorized:

001 – 100	Advanced Course Cadets Enrolled – 1 Medal
101 – 200	Advanced Course Cadets Enrolled – 2 Medals
201 +	Advanced Course Cadets Enrolled – 3 Medals

A blank certificate and certificate holder will be included with each medal. The certificate shall be completed locally with the recipient's name.

AUSA Military History Award

AUSA will provide a military history book and blank certificate for an award winner. These will be used as an award to continue AUSA's program of recognizing excellence in the study of military history in ROTC units. The Cadet must have been enrolled in a specific military history course at the institution during the academic year the award is given. The Professor of Military Science may establish additional criteria.

AUSA is pleased to support your program with these awards. If there are other ways you feel we could better support your program, please contact us at ROTC@ausa.org.
