Scholarship Awards Reception

On 9 June the Braxton Bragg chapter of AUSA held its annual scholarship awards ceremony. The event was held at the Iron Mike Conference Center on Fort Bragg, NC. Over 50 attendees were present for this special event to recognize deserving young men and women pursuing higher education. The chapter awarded a total of twelve $1000 scholarships this year and eight recipients were able to attend the event and receive their awards.

Dr. Jaunita Heyward, Associate Professor from Methodist University was the guest speaker for the ceremony. Dr. Heyward currently serves as the Associate Professor Coordinator of Elementary Education and Art. The chapter president, CSM (Ret) Andrew McFowler presented the awards along with our guest speaker.

Braxton Bragg Chapter Association of the United States Army Department of the Army Civilian of the Year 2017

Mr. Mickey D. McQuain Selected As Braxton Bragg Chapter Association of the United States Army Department of the Army Civilian of the Year 2017

Mr. Mickey D. McQuain, a retire Sergeant Major, is Chief, Installation Physical Security Officer, Directorate of Emergency Services, U.S. Army Installation Management

Command, HQ, U.S. Army Garrison, Fort Bragg. He played an integral role in the first-ever Major League Baseball game held on an active military installation. His knowledge and expertise were key to Fort Bragg fielding the Automated Installation Entry (AIE) system. His efforts resulted in the Office of the Provost Marshal General (OPMG) adopting the Fort Bragg Plan for Army installation. His contributions go beyond the military community. He is involved with public speaking with the Fayetteville Rotary club and teaching Public Speaking classes at Western Alamance High School in Burlington, North Carolina.
