Good Food.* GREAT TALK.

Leveraging the incredible value of your military experience for the rest of your life.

Mr. Weiss has served as CEO of The Cooper Companies since November 2007 and added the title of President in March 2008. He has been a member of the Board of Directors since 1996. Since joining the company in 1977, he has held a wide variety of positions. Mr. Weiss is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Scranton in Pennsylvania and serves on its finance, advancement and audit committees. Mr. Weiss is a US Army veteran and served in Vietnam as an Army Medical Service Corps officer.

Heard of TED Talks? Or Lunch and Learn? Want to spend one lunch hour a month hearing from an experienced and renowned leader in their field? Then the Monthly Leadership Luncheon @ Camp Parks is for you!

Future Speakers

Join us every second Tuesday of the month at the Camp Parks Rally Point/Community Activity Center to learn from respected leaders in military, business, public sector and community-based organizations AND enjoy a modestly priced catered lunch. The theme will always be leadership. Something you can use whether you are an NCO, an officer or a civilian.

May 9th Jerry Thorne, Pleasanton Mayor
